“The best way to do is to be.”
- Lao Tzu
“Indeed, the signs of the times tell us that the ‘age of co-operation’ has come. The only feasible way in which we can improve the world situation is to enter into the gate of ‘Common Prosperity’ on the basis of enlightened self-interest.”

– Dr. Young Seek Choue, founder of Kyung Hee University (1965), 1st IAUP Conference, Oxfordshire

Mooc 2.0 with Kyung Hee Cyber University

Difference between Kyung Hee MOOC 2.0 and others

Existing MOOCs

- West-centered unilateral knowledge distribution
- Led by individual university or university groups
- English-and Internet-based

Kyung Hee MOOC 2.0

- General content of both East and West containing regional characteristics
- Collaboration among central and local governments, universities and businesses
- Inclusive approach for non-English users and those with less access to the Internet

Quest for New Paradigm in Higher Education

- How could the higher education contribute to the human society?
- How could we bring about the meaningful shift in human civilizations?
- How could we create an evolutionary learning community with a new paradigm?
- How could we educate the future agents for the better world?
- How could we architect the integral approach to the whole dimension of life?
- How could we establish a transnational university of global citizens?
