

MASTER PROGRAM

ATTENDANCE MODES

The course will include an online part in English and an on-site part. It will include two one-week long intensive workshops in presence (one in Torino and one in Rome) based on a theoretical/practical matrix.

APPLICATION

Access to the Master's course will be through a public call for applications and the 15 scholarships will be provided following the ranking list down to the last eligible candidate.

DONATIONS

We are welcoming enquiries and show of interest from institutions, corporations and individual sponsors wishing to donate one or more scholarships to cover the tuition fees for the master's course and the two stays in Italy. (3,500 euros per scholarship).

15

SCHOLARSHIPS

CONTACTS

LUCA ROLLÈ (UNITO)
l.rolle@unito.it

ALBERTO ZUCCONI (IACP)
alberto.zucconi@iacpedu.org

Project for a
Master Program

Trauma Informed Best Practices

PROJECT

It stems from the desire of some Psychotherapists such as Alberto Zucconi (IACP) and University professors such as Luca Rollè (Department of Psychology, University of Turin) to offer to 15 mental health professionals of Ukrainian nationality, who are currently involved in psychological support interventions in Ukraine, a free training course on the topic of Trauma Informed and Best Practices.

PARTNERS

University of Turin, the IACP (Istituto dell'Approccio Centrato sulla Persona), and International Trainers, experts in trauma training. The World Academy of Art and Science and the World University Consortium have already joined as collaborating institutions. Collaborations with other universities or national or international scientific associations are welcome.

FINANCIAL RESOURCES

The costs of enrollment in the Master's course will be entirely covered by scholarships thanks to donations and funding from third-party organisations.

Leadership

LUCA ROLLÈ
University of Turin

ALBERTO ZUCCONI
Istituto dell'Approccio
Centrato sulla Persona

Places available

15

Reserved to 15 mental health professionals of Ukrainian nationality

Enrollment fee

0 €

To attend online lessons

0 €

To attend the on-site part of course in Italy

All costs will be entirely covered by the scholarships provided by the Master's course.